

CFRU Nominations for the Board of Directors – 2011-2013 Term

CFRU is looking for nominations to the Board of Directors for the 2011-2013 term. The nominations committee is now taking applications (See the attached nominations form), with elections to be held at the CFRU AGM on November 7th. The other attached information should give you a better idea of the positions available and amount of work required. Also see below with regards to the amount of time requirements required in the position, as well as some of the qualities which are being sought for the board of directors.

Please forward and distribute widely.

Applications are due to nominations@cfriu.ca by October 15th, 2011

Barry Rooke

Vice-Chair CFRU and Chair of Nominations Committee.

Monthly Time Commitments:

Meetings	Last Monday of the month, 6-8pm at the University Centre	2 Hours
Committees	Board members are expected to sit on 2 committee's, with varying amount of time requirements based on the committee. Most committee's do not exceed 3-5 hours/month of commitment time.	3-5 Hours
E-mail	Board members receive and are expected to read and reply to approximately 10 e-mails a month, taking up an hour of time.	1 Hour

The following are qualities which the Board of Directors has highlighted as key points in being a member of the board.

Must have	Nice to have	Avoid
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Supportive of peers - Active listener (in meetings) - Diversity - Interest in bettering CFRU - Positive communicator - Engaging - Time - Willing to learn - Dedication - Empathy/Compassion - Patience - unbiased/recognises biases 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Experience in CFRU - Experience on a board - Listens to station - Ability to read financials - Positive outlook - Sense of humour - Facilitation - Note-taking skills - Community connections - Technical skills 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Warm body to fill a seat - Personal agenda - Seeking power - Lack of communication skills - Tangent oriented people